Community Profile:

It is easy to see why Salem is often compared with cities twice its size. Salem is a desirable family location; enjoys educational excellence attributed to the number of above average students; medical facilities reach beyond the norm in service and quality; and recreational and cultural opportunities allow the pursuit of sport, art and leisure.

Only a ninety minute drive from St. Louis, Missouri, with its museums, zoo, major entertainment facilities, sports centers and an international airport. Salem can literally touch the world from its strategic location in Southern Illinois.

Practice Profile:

Salem Township Hospital is a complete health care facility providing a highly trained staff of doctors, nurses, and technicians utilizing state of the art equipment and technology in a quality facility. The hospital is situated in the northwest quadrant of Salem overlooking the waters of the Salem Reservoir. Salem Township Hospital has had a rich history of providing quality health care to Salem and the surrounding area. We provide continuing, comprehensive health maintenance and medical care for patients.
