Location Specifics

Community in Need:

Mattoon/Charleston, Illinois

Part of State:

East Central Illinois

Community Profile:

Most employees enjoy a commute of less than 15 minutes which makes a great work/life balance. The cities offer a small town feel while offering larger city amenities such as shopping, family activities, cultural activities and leisure. Mattoon/Charleston is home to Eastern Illinois University, Lake Land Community College and Fox

Practice Profile:

Sarah Bush Lincoln Health Center is seeking a BC/BE Obstetrician/Gynecologist to join a busy and well-established Women's Health Clinic in the East Central Illinois area. This position joins four other practicing physicians and two nurse practitioners. One physician is transitioning toward retirement and reduced his schedule to gynecology only. He will retire completely later this year. The clinic is located inside the hospital building, making visits to delivering mothers convenient. Averaging around 900 births a year, this is a very busy group and they're looking for someone who is interested in helping with the workload. They're also a solid team so they're looking for another good fit.

Enjoy an employed arrangement in a progressive and financially secure Health System. Find your work/life balance with a family-centered community. Join a strong team of employed physicians who offer a direct source for referrals and specialties. The SBLHC culture is one you'll not find elsewhere with employee accountability and pride in our organization. You have to see this for yourself!
